

“Honoring Life’s Final Passage”

Jerrigrace Lyons offers a Public Presentation:
Bringing Funerals Back Home
with Grace and Compassion:
Thursday October 10, 2013

What are Natural Death Care, Green Burial and Home Funerals?

Learn how families can care for their own at and after death, much as our ancestors did. The growing trend of family and community involvement in after death care, home vigils, and green burial offers many benefits: spiritual, emotional, environmental, and financial.

When: Thursday October 10, 2013

Where: Stony Run Friends Meetinghouse
5116 North Charles St. Baltimore, MD 21210

Time: 7:30 PM

No Charge: Donations welcome

Jerrigrace Lyons is a nationally known leader in the movement to change the way our society views death and dying. She has appeared on the front page of the Wall Street Journal, been quoted in the NY Times, USA Today, and LA Times. She was featured in the acclaimed PBS documentary “A Family Undertaking” aired nationally and now available through Netflix. Ms Lyons founded Final Passages, a non-profit organization, in 1995, teaching people about their rights and the benefits of participating in family-centered arrangements and pioneered the new field of “home funeral guidance.”
