

Hangout Marketing Challenge, a controversial marketing course that is certainly making waves in the world of Internet Marketing by promising to increase traffic flow to a website a hundredfold using Google products alone has caught the attention of <http://MarketersBlueprint.com>'s Stan Stevenson, prompting an investigative review.

"Hangout Marketing Challenge is all about is the all new 'Social Influence Engine.'" It's nothing to do with SEO, social media marketing, or email swap marketing. If you want to expand, you need to improve your visibility on Google, and by using this program, you're doing just that," reports Stevenson. "All of your current SEO and other marketing efforts are pretty much already based around ranking in the giant that is Google, which is only set to gain even more of a majority as the months roll by."

The Hangout Marketing Challenge review shows it offers information about the different ways of marketing on Google, the largest global search engine used by all users, or more importantly, potential purchasers. Google Hangouts is by far the fastest, easiest, and most reliable way to dramatically expand one's online exposure without spending money on advertising. Commonly used Google features such as Search, Images, Maps and more are totally relevant to giving Internet marketers more (free) exposure. Gmail, YouTube, News, Drive, and Calendar are only some of the other ways that Google literally drives traffic to a website.

"Hangout Marketing Challenge provides you with that all-important Google exposure. You don't need to waste any more of your valuable time or money on SEO, social media marketing or email swaps," says Stevenson. "Every part of this program is presented to you in plain English, which even the technophobes among us can understand. One of the Co-Instructors of Hangout Marketing Challenge, Mr. Mandossian along with the other co-instructor and Curriculum Director, Yifat Cohen has taken the wonder that is Google (and Google Hangouts) and perfected a method that uses all of Google's many products and literally manipulates them to drive traffic to your website."

"If you need to get the word out about your business or product, then you can take full advantage of Hangout Marketing Challenge to get maximum exposure for your website. By taking advantage of it right now, at the beginning, you're likely to be there to pick up that crest of a wave and ride it right the way to those riches you've always dreamed of. Utilizing the process that Hangout Marketing Challenge shows you literally increases the audience to your product or business by the hundreds of thousands. The course shows you exactly how to do just that, right from the easy start up to the most intricate of extra tips and tricks to generate and drive traffic to your website."
