Richardson Marriott Hotels Announce New Dual General Manager

Jheannine Golden-Washington will lead Courtyard Dallas Richardson at Campbell and Residence Inn Dallas Richardson

Richardson, TX – Hospitality industry leader Marriott International has promoted Jheannine Golden-Washington to dual general manager overseeing Courtyard Dallas Richardson at Campbell and Residence Inn Dallas Richardson.

Golden-Washington has more than 10 years of professional experience in the hospitality industry working for Marriott. She comes to the Richardson, Texas, hotels from The Worthington Renaissance Fort Worth Hotel, where she was director of room operations. She also has served as general manager of Residence Inn Dallas Central Expressway and TownePlace Suites Fort Worth Southwest. Her experience with multiple properties makes Golden-Washington a perfect fit for the dual general manager position at the Richardson, TX, hotels.

"Each of these hotels has its own unique culture," Golden-Washington said. "My favorite part of working in the hospitality industry is taking care of people. With this position, that will mean ensuring each hotel operates within brand guidelines to meet – or, ideally, exceed – guests' expectations. As the general manager for both hotels, I will have to put on a different hat for each."

Golden-Washington is a resident of Richardson and is excited to embark on this new venture within her community.

"We've lived in Richardson quite some time. The hotels are right down the street from my 6-year-old daughter's school and less than 10 minutes from our home," Golden-Washington said. "I have real roots in this area and am very much looking forward to partnering with the city of Richardson and its Chamber of Commerce to continue earning our hotels a reputation for being home-like accommodations within our local neighborhood."

The hotels in Richardson boast newly renovated rooms and lobbies and are well-appointed with thoughtful amenities. Guests sleep soundly on thick mattresses topped with luxurious bedding and ample fluffy pillows. Beating the Texas heat is easy with a quick dip in either of the hotels' pools, and maintaining a workout routine while on the road is possible with state-of-the-art fitness centers.

The Richardson, TX, hotels are convenient to shopping at NorthPark Center and entertainment at AT&T Stadium, Six Flags Over Texas and the Dallas Arboretum.

The Courtyard hotel in Richardson, Texas, features popular dining option The Bistro – Eat. Drink. Connect. A business center is available for guests who need to check email, print, fax or copy, and the lobby's signature GoBoard provides live weather reports, local news and directions to popular area restaurants.

At the Residence Inn hotel in Richardson, guests can enjoy long-term accommodations in suites with fully equipped kitchens featuring conventional ovens, stovetops, toasters, microwaves, dishwashers, refrigerators with icemakers, pots and pans, silverware and plates. A barbecue/picnic area makes for the perfect setting to enjoy meals alfresco. Guests are provided with a complimentary breakfast buffets in the morning and beverages and food at evening cocktail socials.
