

A Few of the testimonials captured immediately after from the 5th Annual BSMA Conference, October 8-9, 2012

"The 2012 Annual Conference was an extraordinary event, thanks to the guidance and organizational skills. I look forward to participating as a member of Advisory Board of this great organization." Paul Anderson, Vice President, Global Procurement, Life Technologies

"I am looking forward to continued involvement with BSMA and emerging market initiatives." Yingming Yue, Associate Director, Supply Management, Nektar Therapeutics

"I found the meeting very informative with well prepared speakers and good discussion of topics. I look forward to attending future events." Jordan Myers, VWR Healthcare

"Overall, I thought the conference was a great success." Kevin Kevin Pegels, Vice President, Global Supply Chain Management, Bayer Healthcare Biotech

"It was great being part of your event. The sustainability initiative of BSMA is outstanding." Cristina Amorim, Chief Sustainability Officer, Life Technologies

"It is somewhat comforting to know that supply chain is supply chain is supply chain. No matter what the industry, the same types of issues and risk exist. And for that reason, there will always be a need for Supply Chain professionals!" Michael Donahue, Strategic Supplier Management, MM Operations, EMD Millipore

"To speak to a really great group of individuals at this year's conference was an honor. Not only did I appreciate the chance to speak about sustainability and how the industry is moving forward, but I also learned a lot about supply chain challenges and some innovative ways that companies are working to tackle them." Megan Maltenfort, Sustainability Manager, VWR International, LLC
