Courtyard Irvine John Wayne Airport Hotel Serves Up Complimentary Breakfast Alongside Oktoberfest

The John Wayne Airport hotel provides convenient accommodations with meal package to toast to Orange County's annual fall beer festival

Irvine, CA –The Stay for Breakfast Package at the Courtyard Irvine John Wayne Airport provides those raising a glass in celebration of Orange County's Oktoberfest with hearty morning meals served in the perfect central location.

Valid now through December 31, 2013, the Stay for Breakfast Package includes accommodations as well as breakfast for two adults and all children 12 and under. Guests who take advantage of the deal will dine in style at The Bistro – Eat. Drink. Connect. The restaurant serves up popular American dishes daily, including a morning scramble, thick-cut french toast and granola yogurt parfait.

The package is perfect for those interested in taking part in Orange County's many Oktoberfest celebrations. From now through Oct. 27, 2013, lederhosen-donning beer enthusiasts are flocking to Orange County in droves to take part in the festivities featuring great German food, music, beer and culture in Anaheim, San Clemente, Fullerton, Newport Beach and Huntington Beach.

The John Wayne Airport hotel is centrally located in Irvine, CA, providing travelers with accommodations no more than 30 minutes away from major cities hosting Oktoberfest bashes, so revelers can party hop while spending minimal time on the road.

Oktoberfest runs through Oct. 6, 2013, in Anaheim and is held at the Phoenix Club. The venue boasts a large selection of German import beer on tap and is serving delicious roast pig on a spit. The event is family friendly and features a bounce house, children's activities and hayrides every day from noon until 4 p.m. Revelers dance to oompah music performed live by The Express Band and played by Musikmeister DJ.

From 10 a.m. to 8 p.m. on Oct. 19, 2013, an Oktoberfest celebration will occur in San Clemente's Old City Plaza. Numerous vendors will provide German entertainment, beer, food and fun – including local favorite Oktoberfest brats served by San Clemente Elks Lodge.

From 4-8:30 p.m. on Oct. 24, 2013, festivities will take place in Fullerton's Downtown Plaza. The venue is offering live entertainment, produce vendors, an outdoor beer garden, arts and crafts, kids' activities and more. Attendees will also be able to tour the award-winning Fullerton Museum Center with a reduced admission rate of $2. Additionally, the first 500 children will receive trick or treat bags and get to trick or treat at vendors' booths throughout the festival. Children can also participate in a costume parade at either 5 p.m. or 6:45 p.m.

Oktoberfest is celebrated all day long throughout the month of October in Newport Beach at the Balboa Bay Resort. The property's First Cabin Restaurant and Duke's Place feature lunch and dinner specials inspired by German dishes and include a large variety of beers. Diners will be able to sample dishes like wienerschnitzel, sauerbraten, Bavarian bratwurst and warm apple strudel.

Oktoberfest celebrations are held from 6:30-10 p.m. Wednesdays through Saturdays and 2-7:30 p.m. Sundays until Oct. 27, 2013, at Old World in Huntington Beach. Wednesdays and Thursdays the festival offers free admission, beer tasting, food trucks and live German bands. Visitors under 21 must be accompanied by their parents. Fridays and Saturdays the festival is only open to party-goers 21 and older and admission is $20. Sundays are family friendly, adult admission is $5, child admission is $2 and kids under five party for free. In addition to food and kids' activities, there will also be wiener dog races.

With so much going on during the month of October in Orange County, vacationers will appreciate the central location of the Courtyard Irvine John Wayne Airport, enabling them to see and attend as many festivals as they wish. Once they have returned, guests will be able to relax in deluxe beds made up of crisp linens, thick mattresses, custom comforters and fluffy pillows. Nights of restful sleep at the Courtyard Irvine John Wayne Airport hotel will fully prepare them for another day of German-style celebration.

To take advantage of the Stay for Breakfast Package, guests should booking rooms online or over the phone at 1-800-834-7015 and use promotional code S4B.
