WEBITE SOLUTIONS COMPANY ANNOUNCES WEBSITE FOR PUBLISHING COMPANY IN BRYAN, TEXAS

Britton & Knowles, a publishing company in Bryan, recently gained a new online resource that was created by the associates of AgniTEK.

College Station, TX, October 11, 2013– AgniTEK, a nationally-recognized company for their expertise in helping organizations leverage technology to improve businesses, is pleased to announce the launch of a website for Britton & Knowles at <http://www.brittonknowles.com>. The new website was designed and created by AgniTEK associates and is live on the web.

Britton & Knowles is an association of publishers and artists who produce and market books, role playing games, art prints, posters, posters, audio books, and e-books to regional, national, and international retail vendors through their online sales site and by direct sales to vendor accounts. Their mission is to expand the market for quality print, visual, audio, and electronic media. They promote products for their associated imprints using their catalogs, online advertising, and other print and electronic promotional materials, and at book fairs, conventions, and other public events. Britton & Knowles specializes in trade paperbacks and quality eBooks. To learn more about Britton & Knowles, visit their website today.

The Britton & Knowles website features a page of events where either their staff members or clients will be, as well as a descriptive page of the publishing services they offer. They have a list of books for sale that they have recently been published, and a list of the imprints and associates they partner with. If a writer is interested in being published, they can be matched with the perfect associate publisher on the Britton & Knowles website. On their contact page, there is a quick and easy card to fill out if there are any questions, comments, or concerns for the company. All of these features were made possible by AgniTEK and their associates.

AgniTEK is a full service website and software solutions company serving Texas companies for over 15 years. They deliver reliability, consistency, simplicity and value in website services and software application development work.
