Residence Inn Long Beach Helps Guests Flying Home for the Holidays Save on Parking

Long Beach hotel's new parking package cuts down on holiday commuter's spending and stress

Long Beach, CA – There is no place like home for the holidays, and the Residence Inn Long Beach hotel's new package helps guests get where they are going without wasting money and time parking at the airport.

The Park n' Fly Package offers rates from $159 to $239 per night with complimentary parking up to seven days after their stay and shuttle service to the Long Beach Airport (LGB).

Guests who take advantage of the package to travel home or elsewhere during the holidays will save on time, money and stress. Parking overnight at the airport can be expensive – up to $24 a night or $168 per week. After purchasing presents for loved ones, buying plane tickets and spending gas money, travelers staying at the Long Beach hotel only one mile from the airport will be relieved that they do not need to fork over more cash to cover the cost of either a taxi or parking.

Guests staying at the Long Beach hotel will start their travels off right with a complimentary American-style breakfast buffet. Guest can take their pick from an extensive menu of mouth-watering options including eggs Florentine, fresh cut fruit, house-made breakfast sandwiches and morning cereal, just to name a few. As an added bonus, guests who get to the hotel early enough the night before their flight Tuesday through Thursday can unwind with a cocktail at the complimentary evening social from 6-7:30 p.m.

Back in their rooms, guests can relax in a luxurious Long Beach suite fully equipped with desirable, home-like features. Guests can take care of last-minute office requests with ease from ergonomic chairs at well-lit desks with convenient power outlets and complimentary high speed Internet. All rooms come with full kitchens featuring a conventional oven, stove, dishwasher, microwave, pots, pans, serving dishes and silverware. Guests enjoy great nights of sleep in luxurious beds made up of fluffy pillows, custom comforters and cotton-rich linens. Keeping entertained is easy with flat-screen TVs boasting premium channels such as CNN, ESPN and HBO. Guests can rest assured they will wake up on time for their flights by setting the in-suite alarm clock.

If guests decide to extend their stays beyond their holiday trips, they will find that the hotel is convenient to numerous area attractions including the Long Beach Aquarium of the Pacific, Los Alamitos Race Track, Home Depot Center Stadium and Universal Studios Hollywood. The extended-stay Long Beach hotel also offers grocery delivery and dry cleaning service for added convenience.

The Park n' Fly Package is valid seven days a week through Feb. 6, 2014. To book this deal online or by calling 1-800-228-9290, guests should use the promotional code PKF.
