Discover the Southeast cultural district of Portland with the Jupiter Hotel's PDX Urban Winery package. With a steady upswell of new inner-city wineries, Portland's urban winemakers have moved their operations closer to where they live and socialize. Many of these wineries serve food in a convivial atmosphere, dubbed the "enopub." The latest Portland experience at the Jupiter Hotel celebrates this new movement where guests wine, dine and find comfort in a quality hotel stay while supporting community-based businesses.
