Crowne Plaza San Antonio Riverwalk Reflags, Joins Wyndham Family Of Hotels

Wyndham San Antonio Riverwalk debuts with promise to enhance guest experiences in the Alamo City

San Antonio, TX – One of the world’s largest hospitality companies has made its presence in the San Antonio market even stronger with the introduction of the Wyndham San Antonio Riverwalk.

The former Crowne Plaza San Antonio Riverwalk has taken on a new flag and will continue to offer the same excellent services and convenient amenities of its predecessor while upping the ante with a fresh new take on the guest experience. The brand is already welcoming guests with a promise to be responsive to its customers’ needs while being respectful in every way.

Whether in town for business or leisure, visitors will be impressed with the downtown San Antonio hotel’s convenient location to local activities and attractions.

Vacationers can step out of the hotel and instantly be on the famous San Antonio River Walk. Families can enjoy seeing marine life and other exotic animals from around the globe with Sea World and the San Antonio Zoo just a short drive away. Splashtown Water Park, less than 10 miles from the hotel, provides a rush of excitement and escape from the summer heat in Texas. And less than a mile from the hotel, history inspires kids of all ages as they approach the walls outside of the Lone Star state’s centerpiece, the Alamo.

The Wyndham San Antonio Riverwalk offers 410 deluxe guest rooms appointed with the amenities guests expect from a brand of this quality. New Sealy 2000 plush mattresses with soft cotton-rich linens call to the weary, while spacious work stations with desk-level electrical outlets provide professionals a comfortable, quiet area to complete additional business tasks. High-speed Internet access, coffeemakers, irons with ironing boards, spacious closets and hairdryers are just some of the features visitors will discover in their rooms.

The 37,000 square feet of flexible meeting space, along with its convenient proximity to the San Antonio Convention Center, makes this downtown San Antonio hotel an ideal place for large conferences , board meetings and corporate incentive programs. In addition to business services such as printing, faxing and copying, the hotel offers full audio-visual and banquet services as well as complete packages designed to assist planners in the successful management of meetings of 10 to 1,000 attendees. Wyndham hopes that even the most experienced business travelers will be impressed with the accommodations and meeting facilities of the San Antonio River Walk hotel.

While staying at the hotel, guests have unlimited access to the state-of-the-art fitness center. Visitors wishing to keep up with their normal exercise programs or balance out all of the delicious cuisine found along the River Walk in the Alamo City can run to their heart's content on treadmills and elliptical machines, as well as lift free weights. A heated rooftop pool and whirlpool with beautiful nighttime views of the city is also available for enjoyment and exercise options.
