New York, NY, Oct 24, 2013: Statistics by National Retail Foundation for Halloween 2013 show that 158 million Americans will be celebrating the holiday as compared to 170 million Americans who celebrated last year. The total spending for the holiday has also reduced as compared to 2012 and 25.2% of the people surveyed said that this was impacted by the economy. Whatever are the reasons, 123Greetings.com helps people continue the merriment through a creative, interactive and fun medium of ecards.

123Greetings.com offers Halloween expressions that can raise the dampened spirits through animated spooky ecards that don't cost anything. Greeting cards are integral to Halloween celebrations as Americans spent $590 million on greeting cards for this holiday, in 2012. This year it is predicted to be much lower. However the emotions and sentiments remain the same and can be easily expressed by sending scary online wishes. One of 123Greetings.com's users commented on a Halloween ecard, "Great exciting idea for family, children and friends."

Arvind Kajaria, Founder of 123Greetings.com, says "Halloween ushers in the holiday season which is full of celebrations and decorations and we want everyone to enjoy the holiday.
