FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Optomi IT Staffing Company Donates Workday to do Local Charity Work This hallmark day, November 5th, is the company's 1-year Anniversary

October 29, 2013 • Roswell, Georgia | Strong core values have been a key contributor to the success of IT staffing firm Optomi, which continues to experience record-breaking growth within its first year of business. Dedication to its people and the communities in which they live/work are central to the mission of Optomi. So on the day it was founded, November 5th, Optomi gives its internal employees the opportunity to spend their workday (with full pay) serving others. Optomi has a big heart for those in need...especially little ones whose circumstances are beyond their control. In honor of its 1-year Anniversary, each of Optomi's branches (Atlanta, Chicago, Dallas) will be helping families and children in need during this corporate hallmark event November 5th.

The corporate office in the Atlanta market will be serving the organization CHRIS Kids... helping them update a foster home (painting, organizing, doing yard work) and baking for the kids. The Chicago & Dallas regions will be serving the Greater Chicago Food Depository and the North Texas Food Bank... helping package food for families in need.

As an organization in an industry focused on people, Optomi believes in investing in people's lives. To learn more about Optomi's commitment to enriching the communities in which it is involved, please visit www.optomi.com. Photographs available after the event at www.optomi.com/giving-back.

Led by co-founders Michael Winwood (formerly the President & COO of Technisource) and Todd Black (formerly the Senior Vice President of Technisource), Optomi is an IT staffing company headquartered in Atlanta with branches in the downtown & suburban Chicago markets and Dallas. The privately held company is trending to be one of the fastest growing national IT staffing firms.
