

Fiona Kinsella

Hamilton - The Nathaniel Hughson Gallery Presents
Fiona Kinsella, October 31 through November 23, 2013.
Opening reception November 8 Art Crawl, 6pm to 10pm. Known for her intricate work with bakers fondant; creating beautiful yet slightly grotesque cakes adorning such items as antique silver as well as human teeth.

Fiona Kinsella is a mixed media artist and painter based in Hamilton, Ontario. Kinsella has exhibited across North America and Europe. Her practice has been recognized both provincially and nationally with grants awarded by the Ontario Arts Council and the Canada Council for the Arts. In 2008 she was honoured with a nomination from the OAC for the K.M. Hunter Artists Awards.

Fiona is a graduate of the University of Guelph's Department of Fine Art; and she holds a post-graduate diploma in Computer Graphics from the Department of Animation & Design, Sheridan College. Fiona is the Associate Editor and Designer of Hamilton Arts & Letters magazine. www.HALmagazine.com
