

Military Leader Transition Seminar

Plan and develop your post-military career guided by Afterburner, a veteran-owned company that trains Fortune 500 executives.

Workshop Objective

Equip participants with the skills to plan & execute the development of a post-military career.

Workshop Outcomes

- An executable career plan – career objectives, networking strategy, and interviewing skills
- Craft a personal Value Proposition
- Shift from a military to a business “mindset”
- Identify specific industries that need military leader skillsets

Who Should Attend?

Military leaders of all ranks that are interested in developing a post-military career. If you're simply interested in securing a job without a foundational understanding of how to develop a civilian career, this workshop is not for you! Want to develop 75% of your post-military career plan using the simple process we teach Fortune 500 Executives every day? Then this seminar is for you!

This unique workshop is presented by Afterburner, Inc. a veteran-owned and staffed training and consulting company founded in 1996 that has worked with over 30% of the U.S Fortune 500 and many Global 1000 corporations, including the NFL.

This transition course is sponsored by FNH USA, LLC, a U.S. subsidiary of FN Herstal S.A., a global leader in the development and manufacturing of high-quality, reliable firearms for the military, law enforcement and commercial clients. FNH USA actively supports veteran initiatives through membership and charitable contributions to associations like AUSA, AAAA, and NDIA, veteran sponsorships, and veteran hiring.
