"After a break up, time is of the essence, and people looking to reconcile with their exes need to take swift action," states Roman. "It can be very painful watching others swoop in like hungry vultures, making moves in on your ex, but the reality is that with every passing moment your ex is meeting more new people, and probably getting a lot of attention on Facebook. However, there's is some good news, because not only is Facebook the world's most popular social networking site, but now dating coach Dean Cortez and his team of relationship experts have figured out a way to use Facebook for another purpose: to help people "re-attract" and win back the love of their exes. So, needless say, when I found out about Dean's Facebook Re-Attraction program I was eager review the course for my online followers."

Johnson's Facebook Re-Attraction review reveals that the course was developed by Dean Cortez, Samantha Sanderson and their team of relationship experts who applied concepts from their popular Ex Back Experts program to literally "Facebook your ex back". The course is made available in digital format allowing users instant access to all training materials including: The Facebook Re-Attraction System Complete Manual, The Facebook Re-Attraction System Audio Course, The 7 Deadly Sins of Re-Attraction Video Coaching Module, and a host of additional bonus trainings.

"Our Facebook Re-Attraction review shows that the system is suitable for people who have been dumped by their long term lovers, as well as those simply wishing to reconnect with someone they went on a few dates with, who has since gone AWOL," reports Johnson. "We were impressed by the system's almost elegant simplicity. It's a wonder that simply by utilizing Facebook people around the world are now able to get there exes to miss, want, and need them again."

When asked for a statement, Facebook Re-Attraction System co-creator Dean Cortez had the following to say about the program:

"Look, we all use Facebook," says Cortez. "For many of us, it's a part of our daily lives. You're on there. Your ex is on there. So now, imagine if you knew a simple, step-by-step method to use your Facebook account – in a subtle, stealthy and silent way – to make your ex notice you again? And start thinking about you, missing you, even fantasizing about you? Our team of experts has figured out 'hacks' to use on Facebook so that your ex will never know you're trying to win them back, but in the end, your ex will be the one asking your for another chance."
