

KANSAS CITY CONVERSATIONS

...with Jane Chu,
Kauffman Center President & CEO

Jane Chu serves as the president and CEO for the Kauffman Center for the Performing Arts, located at 16th and Broadway in Kansas City, which is the performance home of the Kansas City Ballet, Kansas City Symphony, and Lyric Opera of Kansas City, and houses community presentations from contemporary dance, Broadway, children's theatre, and national and international artists. Since its grand opening in September 2011, more than 750,000 people have already attended an event at the center.

Jane holds bachelors and masters degrees in piano performance, music education and piano pedagogy from Ouachita Baptist University and Southern Methodist University, respectively. Additionally, Jane holds a master of business administration from Rockhurst University, a PhD in philanthropic studies at Indiana University, and holds an Honorary Doctorate (Honoris causa) in music from the University of Missouri-Kansas City Conservatory of Music and Dance

Sponsored by Club 675
Supporting Coats for Kids
Donations Welcome

Special Holiday Lunch by Executive Chef Joe Cizek

THURSDAY
Dec 12th
11:30am to 1pm

Please RSVP by 12.10.2013 to the Club Paul@TheKansasCityClub.com or 816.421.6789

See you at the Club!

Kansas City Conversations is a lunch series featuring notable Kansas Citians and is held at The Kansas City Club. Arrive early for informal socializing starting at 11:30, followed by noon lunch and a speaker. Finish by 1pm. A great opportunity to get to know Club members, entertain clients or guests and introduce friends to The Kansas City Club.

THE KANSAS CITY CLUB
918 Baltimore Avenue • Kansas City, MO 64105 • TheKansasCityClub.com