Mentorship Agreement & Syllabus

What is Mentorship?

Mentorship is an all-inclusive eight week training program where John Paul teaches you all of our courses, software, and trading methods in a live training room. There are two types of Mentorship: Group Mentorship and Individual Mentorship. The differences will be discussed later.

Mentorship is not a typical trading room. It's a live, educational room where you learn objective, powerful, effective day trading methods for consistent day trading. In the live training room, you are able to see John Paul's charts and hear him speak. You can ask questions and get immediate answers. The current day and recent days are reviewed, whereby John Paul explains how to identify and manage trades using each method. You are fully taught everything he knows – from identifying setups, exact rules for profit targets and stops, and how to engage the markets consistently every day. By the end of the eight weeks, you will have a complete trading plan to handle any market activity effectively. This objective "mental flow chart" will guide you through each training day, from start to finish, in order to help you realize your goals as a professional trader.

In the Mentorship Program, all of our courses and software are included with lifetime licenses. While a few our courses are sold separately, the Mentorship Program goes above and beyond the standard courses. These additional strategies (including software) are exclusive to Mentorship: Price Action Scalping, the RoadMap, and the At the Open (ATO), filtering trades, and more.

Before participating in Mentorship, we recommend that you have some experience with operating your trading software (platform). John Paul uses NinjaTrader, and this is what we recommend. If needed, we can provide you with a free copy of NinjaTrader and live data for practicing. All of the software that comes with Mentorship is programmed for NinjaTrader only, with the exception of the Atlas Line (also compatible with TradeStation and eSignal). In some cases, our students have switched platforms and use NinjaTrader because it is easier to follow along with the instruction. You can continue to use your existing platform; just note that you will need to trade all of the methods manually and the Atlas Line will not be useable unless you use one of the three platforms it supports.

Upon request, we can provide you with the NinjaTrader platform and live data for free. As a benefit, you can then place simulated trades using this live (demo) environment. This is as close as you can get to trading real money without risk. To find out more about NinjaTrader and our approach to trading, please see the Get Started Trading Guide.

The Mentorship Program primarily focuses on trading the E-mini S&P 500 futures market. Other futures markets such as the Euro FX (6E), Mini Russel 2000 (TF), 6A (Australian Dollar), 6C (Canadian Dollar), CL (Light Sweet Crude), GC (Gold), etc. are also targeted. Many of the methods taught in the program can be used with trading regular forex markets.

Typically, classes are twice a week. Each session is an hour. The final two weeks (weeks 7 and 8), there is only one session per week. In total, there are 14 hours of live instruction. Each week, you are provided new trading materials. Written, digital courses are included for the ATO, Price Action Scalping, The Trade Scalper, and X-5. Software is provided for the ATO, ABC Method, Price Action Scalping, The Trade Scalper, Atlas Line, and RoadMap. All additional strategies are taught verbally. We highly recommend you take notes during the live training.

In addition to the live training, you will receive video recordings of each training session. You are provided your own, private login where you can replay each training session. We've found video recordings to be very effective in the educational process, as students can pause, rewind, and fast-forward to specific points in the video.

After the eight weeks of training, you have continued email support. Throughout the training and after, you are able to email us at support@daytradetowin.com with any questions. Many of our students email us pictures of charts in order to clarify their understanding. Also, after the eight weeks, you can continue to log in and watch the video recordings. Since the courses and software come with lifetime licenses, your access to these materials also continues. Former Mentorship students can also request additional training sessions at no charge.

What are the Costs and Differences Between Group and Individual Mentorship?

Group Mentorship and Individual Mentorship include all of the same materials: the same courses, software, instruction, video recordings, and support.

Individual Mentorship – ($5,400 USD*) you are in a one-on-one class that is customized to your unique schedule. Morning, afternoon, and evening class times are available to meet your busy schedule or international time zone. You have the added benefit of being able to speak with John Paul via Skype (a free chat program) or telephone. The teaching is at your pace. If you can't make a lesson, you will have a make-up lesson scheduled for another time.

Group Mentorship – ($3,900 USD*) you are in a class with several other students. Classes are on a fixed schedule: twice a week, usually from 3:00 p.m. to 4:00 p.m. US/Eastern time on select days. You can type your questions directly to John Paul. Live interaction allows you to see his charts and hear him speak. Instruction is at the pace of the class. If you miss a class, you can always review the recorded sessions and ask questions via email. The trading methods are reviewed multiple times throughout the eight weeks to ensure a clear understanding for all students.

*For payment, there is an initial $500 deposit. This deposit goes towards the total amount and provides you with the first week's course, setup, and any additional material. The next payment is automatically billed on the first day of class. The final payment is automatically billed 30 days later.

Day Trade to Win customers may receive a partial discount for purchase history. Please contact us to find out your discount credit toward the cost of the Mentorship programs.

We provide a discount for students who wish to pay in full. Please contact us at support@daytradetowin.com for details.

A Letter from John Paul

Dear trader,

Once your Mentorship training is complete, I am confident that your trading abilities will have greatly improved, allowing for better trades and the ability to make more money (although this cannot be legally guaranteed). Additionally, I believe the Mentorship Program will take years out of your learning process; thereby preventing loss associated with trading's steep learning curve. My goal is to teach you effective day trading techniques that cannot be found elsewhere, and to provide you with a successful, comprehensive system for the E-mini S&P and other electronic markets.

In order for us to proceed, please understand that I cannot, by law, make any representation that your account or any account will be likely to achieve profit or loss. All day trading methods taught in the Mentorship training are for educational purposes only. I encourage you to practice all of the methods first in simulation mode and ask questions during training to ensure clarity.

Please complete and fax the last page of this document in order to acknowledge your understanding of all disclaimers and what the Mentorship Program includes. If you need to reschedule the start date of your training, please call us at (1-888-607-0008) or e-mail us at support@daytradetowin.com.

To your success,

John Paul
