LOCAL BUSINESS, MOB ADVOCACY REPRESENTS CLIENTS AT NATIONAL STATE LEGISLATIVE CONFERENCE IN WASHINGTON, D.C.

MOB Advocacy, a state and local government relations firm based in Fairfax, Virginia will be participating in the National Conference of State Legislatures' (NCSL) Fall Forum, which is being held December 4 - 6, 2013 in Washington, D.C.

MOB Advocacy will be representing clients as part of its National Groups Advocacy service, which allows businesses, trade associations and non-profit organizations to have a presence at meetings like NCSL's Fall Forum, and other national organizations related to state and local executive, legislative and regulatory officials. Through this service, MOB Advocacy helps organizations achieve their goals by leveraging our participation in these meetings. Whether MOB Advocacy represents your organization directly at the meeting, or helps you build relationships by leveraging our existing network, or helps you to pinpoint the right decision makers and deliver your message, MOB Advocacy designs and executes the right strategy and solution for your organization.

"MOB Advocacy's National Groups Advocacy service is geared to helping small business and start-ups get representation at these national meetings, but any company, trade association or non-profit organization can benefit from the service," said Michael O'Brien, founder and principal of MOB Advocacy. Whether your issues are in the area of healthcare, education, financial services, security, criminal justice, gaming or the environment, your issues are discussed at this meeting and others like it. "Your industries' issues are discussed and solutions are offered. No matter what your industry -- you need to have a presence, and MOB Advocacy can help you optimize that presence."

MOB Advocacy attends and participates in several national groups meetings and events through out the year. For more information about the National Groups Advocacy service, and other MOB Advocacy services, please visit our website at www.mob-advocacy.com/services.
