Innovative Clinical Research Solutions - Since 1991 -

GET TO KNOW US!

Success in road criteriums, as in clinical trials, requires a mix of good technical skills -- in particular, the ability to "corner smoothly" while "holding the line" on the road, as well as moving rapidly and sharply through the course. It requires riding safely with a large group on a short circuit – plus exceptional endurance and the resiliency to accelerate hard from tight corners – all with the flexibility and performance of a true leader.

Criterium CRO competes like a fine tuned athlete, with the stamina and determination to win every time.

Ride with us to the finish line!

Our goal is to provide world-class clinical development services.

By flattening our business operations, our staff members and clients around the world are integrated into the process using Criterium-developed technology.

John Hudak, MBA President and Founder

CTSM: Clinical Trials Supply Management

"The IVR system not only collects data in real-time but allows the use of the information for real-time decision-making."

CTSM / IVR Drug Inventory Applications SOLVE these 3 major issues:

Labor Intensive Process - Short Lead Times - Limited Trial Supply

Automated Randomization and Trial Supply Management logistics are managed using a central computer accessed via telephone, (IVR/Interactive Voice Response) and web board (IWR/Interactive Web Response) interfaces.

IVR provides randomization methods supported by experienced industry statisticians:

- static blocked lists
- stratification
- custom algorithms

Key IVR Features Supporting CTSM

- Extensive range of randomization methods
- Automated inventory control
- Dispensing and titration management
- Comprehensive management of adaptive trials
- Emergency code break
- Real-time study recruitment and supply location/status reporting
- 24/7/365 toll-free availability
- 24/7 support
