George F. du Pont of Tannenbaum Helpers Chairs New York City Bar Association's E-Discovery Working Group

New York, NY, January 6, 2014—Tannenbaum Helpers is pleased to announce that George F. du Pont, a partner in its Litigation & Dispute Resolution practice, has been appointed Chair of the E-Discovery Working Group of the New York City Bar Association. The Working Group focuses on e-discovery issues and in May, 2013, published an e-discovery guide for lawyers.

“E-discovery is the one of the biggest challenges in controlling litigation costs,” says du Pont. “I am excited to take on the role and to work with fellow members of the Association to find practical solutions to increasingly complex e-discovery challenges,” states du Pont.

A skilled litigator, du Pont works on Tannenbaum Helpers’s complex commercial and appellate litigation and has deep experience representing clients in state and federal courts.
