

10 Ways We Show We Care About You

1. Ohana means family in Hawaiian: We are a family-owned business and wouldn't create or recommend anything for your family that we wouldn't create for our own.

2. Listen: Your home is all about you! Beginning with our detailed proposal and going all the way to the finishing touches of construction. Our primary goal is to understand how your family will use your new space and make it as functional and fitting for you as long as possible.

3. Clear Communication: Starting with our online project management system that allows you to see the work schedule to our customized Project Binder, we try to be as transparent as possible with every aspect of your project. And, of course, we're always available for questions that come up.

4. Innovation & Education: We have completely remodeled two homes for our own family and continually test and research new products ourselves before recommending them to our clients.

5. Excellent Service: We know a remodel means inconvenient living for the duration of the construction and that is why we strive to make sure you're as comfortable as possible. For example, just one way we anticipate your needs is by providing a hot plate, microwave, and water cooler while your kitchen is under construction.

6. Ask Our Past Clients: “The entire experience with Ohana Construction was outstanding!

We did a complete kitchen remodel and a small master bathroom remodel. Both rooms were gutted and brought back to life. Everyone was very good at listening to our ideas and helping to translate them into good remodel designs that were followed by great craftsmanship. The project was done on time, with the added benefit of getting a weekly work plan schedule every Sunday night. We couldn't be happier with the final result! We have had several compliments from family and friends who say, "Wow, this really reflects you guys...". But the best part of the whole experience was to meet and share our remodeling experience with Ryan and Maggie. We were extremely pleased to work with great people who care about their customers and their work. We highly recommend them!!!”
