Celebrity Hair Colorist Daniel Villano Announces Intention to Set up Chicago Residency

Hair painting expert Daniel Villano, whose celebrity clients include Dylan McDermott, Toni Collette and others, announces his intention to set up a monthly residency in Chicago to offer his highly specialized services utilizing the balayage technique. Villano will visit Chicago February 23-24, 2014 and will be available by advance appointment only. For more info on Villano, go to DanielVillano.com.

CHICAGO, Ill., Jan. 28, 2014—Daniel Villano, one of the finest hair painting experts on the East Coast, is pleased to announce his intention to set a monthly residence in Chicago. Beginning in February 2014, Villano plans to deliver his state-of-the-art services to selected Chicago clientele.

Daniel Villano, famous for his balayage technique, has had his work featured in some of the nation's biggest fashion publications such as Vogue, Elle, and InStyle. He has also been featured in the New York Times and on "Regis and Kelly." Moreover, Villano is currently working with famous celebrities like Dylan McDermott, Toni Collette, Sandrine Holt, and NBC's Tamron Hall.

"Style is expression and hair is a core part of a woman's beauty," explains Villano. "I strongly believe that change is good, especially with hair. It wakes up the soul." His personalized approach guarantees that each client will be treated uniquely, leaving the salon completely satisfied with the result. According to Villano, "Color changes everything. And nothing is better than looking in the mirror, and feeling just right."

Villano is looking forward to monthly visits to Chicago and is currently setting appointments for hair color and personalized consultations for his visit on February 23-24, 2014.
