

Who's Who – What's What

- Buffalo Bill Center of the West: a museum complex begun in 1927 to celebrate the spirit of the American West; its focus is western history; firearms; western art; nature and science of the Yellowstone region; and Plains Indian history and culture.
- McCracken Research Library: the Center's research library with holdings that include 30,000 books, more than 300 manuscript collections, and over a half-million photographs.
- Cody, Wyoming: founded by William F. "Buffalo Bill" Cody; lies 50 miles east of Yellowstone National Park.
- William F. Cody (1846 – 1917): a man who lived the Old West with buffalo hunting, Pony Express, his Wild West arena show, and an entrepreneur who founded Cody, Wyoming.
- Yellowstone National Park: America's first national park founded in 1872; located in northwest Wyoming.
- Bruce Eldredge: Center of the West Executive Director.
- Mary Robinson: Director, McCracken Research Library

Links and other information

Center of the West Web site:

<http://www.centerofthewest.org>

Center Facebook page:

<https://www.facebook.com/centerofthewest>

McCracken Library Digital Collections

<http://library.bbhc.org/>

Video: YouTube BBHC channel

<http://www.youtube.com/user/atBBHC>