

Rachel Cartwright-Vanzant, PhD(c), MS, RN, LHRM, LNCC is the owner of Medical Legal Concepts, LLC and founder of NursingImpact. She travels the country helping nurses refine their documentation skills regarding patient care while inspiring them to reach their full potential. She does this as a speaker, mentor, and author. Her accomplished career combines over 29 years of clinical, managerial, and business experience. Rachel's clinical experience includes adult critical care, trauma, and open heart surgery recovery.

Rachel holds a MS in nursing, and is currently completing her PhD dissertation from Walden University: School of Public Policy and Administration: Law and Policy on Health Literacy.

Rachel speaks regularly for PESI/CMI Healthcare and provides customized on-site presentations on quality and legal aspects of documenting health related issues.

Rachel has authored the books, The Ultimate Pocket Guide for Legal Nurse Consultants, Sample Case Reports for Legal Nurse Consultants, and Surefire Ways for Selling Legal Nurse Consulting Services. She is working on her fourth book: Practical Application Handbook: Nursing Documentation

Rachel is past president of the South Florida Chapter of Legal Nurse Consultants. She is a member of the National Speakers Association, Global Speakers Federation, American Association of Legal Nurse Consultants, and Women Speakers Association.