

Jay Anthony | President

Jay Anthony is the President of Global Audit & Forensic Accounting Services, PA dba Audit Liaison, PA and has over 20 years of accounting and internal and external audit experience across numerous industries.

Jay established Audit Liaison in 2010 as an audit support services firm to assist companies of all sizes with their annual audit preparation. Jay acts as a liaison with independent audit teams, providing audit readiness and support services for Financial, Sarbanes-Oxley, and SSAE 16 Audits, as well as providing interim-Controller and interim-CFO services.

Jay also partners with TJ Edwards Group, as a consultant, and provides financial and service provider audit preparation and CFO/Controller support for several VC backed firms based in the Northeast.

Throughout the course of his career, Jay has been a Manager at Ernst & Young, and a Director of Internal Audit for a global mobile communications firm, where he assisted in Initial Public Offering preparation, created the Internal Audit function, and led the Sarbanes-Oxley and service organization control audit (SSAE 16) initiatives.
