Yusen Logistics Named OCM Partner of the Year by Walmart Mexico

Yusen Logistics has been recognized as the 2013 Ocean Consolidation Management (OCM) Partner of the Year by Walmart Mexico y CentroAmerica. This is the second time in the last three years that Yusen Logistics has received this honor.

Jordan Dewart, Yusen Logistics' Vice President, Mexico, accepted the award at Walmart's Annual Carrier Conference for Latin America, which was held in Mexico City last month.

"We are honored to receive this award from this important global organization," says Dewart. "We appreciate the value that Walmart places on customer service, commitment to quality and collaborative relationships. Credit goes to our dedicated team for this outstanding achievement."

The OCM Partner of the Year award is based on key performance indicators, including accuracy of data transmission, on site personnel excellence, origin country responsiveness, peak season performance and innovation. Yusen Logistics has been partnering with Walmart Mexico y CentroAmerica for four years, providing warehousing, consolidation and OCM services.
