

The Art of Harry Jackson:

- Buffalo Bill Center of the West: a museum complex begun in 1927 to celebrate the spirit of the American West; its focus is western history; firearms; western art; nature and science of the Yellowstone region; and Plains Indian history and culture.
- Cody, Wyoming: founded by William F. "Buffalo Bill" Cody; lies 50 miles east of Yellowstone National Park.
- William F. Cody (1846 – 1917): a man who lived the Old West with buffalo hunting, Pony Express, his Wild West arena show, and an entrepreneur who founded Cody, Wyoming.

■ Yellowstone National Park: America's first national park founded in 1872; located in northwest Wyoming, 50 miles from Cody.

■ Whitney Western Art Museum: The Center's Whitney Museum has and extraordinary collection of paintings, prints, sculpture, and more, which give visitors a broad look at the West through the works of its most famous artists.

■ Bruce Eldredge: Center of the West Executive Director.

■ Mindy Besaw: Curator, Whitney Western Art Museum..

Links and other information

Center of the West website: <http://www.centerofthewest.org>

Center Facebook page: <https://www.facebook.com/centerofthewest>

Harry Jackson Foundation/Studios: <http://harryjacksonstudios.com>

Video—YouTube Center of the West channel: <http://www.youtube.com/user/atBBHC>