

Team Fastrax to appear at the University of Cincinnati Baseball Game

On Friday, April 11, 2014, Team Fastrax will be performing a patriotic American Flag Skydive, as part of the opening ceremony of the University of Cincinnati baseball game. The Bearcats will be playing the Connecticut Huskies at Marge Schott Stadium in Cincinnati.

(CINCINNATI, OH)

The University of Cincinnati Bearcats' Friday game against the Connecticut Huskies, is sure to be an unforgettable night. The game starts at 6:30 pm, and just prior to the first pitch, Team Fastrax will be performing an amazing aerial display with their beautiful 1,100 sq. ft. American flag, an 1,100 sq. ft. Bearcat banner, and their red, white, and blue streamers.

John Hart, owner of Start Skydiving, and member of Team Fastrax, said "We are excited to be performing our American Flag skydive for all of the amazing college sports fans. The energy and excitement of these games are like none other." John added, "UC Bearcats are a great team, and the stadium is a wonderful facility."

According to the UC website, they opened their brand new, state-of-the-art, on-campus baseball stadium in May 2004. It was named Marge Schott Stadium in the spring of 2006 after the Marge and Charles J. Schott Foundation made a $2 million gift to the Richard E. Lindner Varsity Village. Marge Schott was a well-known Cincinnati philanthropist who held controlling interest in the Cincinnati Reds from 1985 to 1999. She passed away in March, 2004, leaving the majority of her estate to the foundation.

Team Fastrax is sponsored by Selection.com, a leading provider of criminal background checks and pre-employment screening services. They are the most ambitious professional skydiving team in the world. The team has a roster of more than twenty-nine active members, with a culmination of more than 300,000 skydives. Team Fastrax has performed exhibition skydives all over the world for audiences large and small as a patriotic display or as a product promotion.
