

Farm Bill Seminars

The Texas Corn Producers is hosting a series of farm bill seminars for agricultural producers in the area. Each session will provide information related to the farm bill, and a preview of the available tools you have to aid in making decisions for your farming operations.

Topics

General Farm Bill Overview and Preview of Decision Aid Tool

Joe Outlaw, Ph.D., Co-Director of the Agricultural and Food Policy Center at Texas A&M University

Question and Answer Session

Event Details

Monday, April 21 from 6:30 - 8:30 p.m.

Dimmitt Senior Citizen Center, 218 Jones St, Dimmitt, Texas

Dinner Included

Tuesday, April 22 at 9 a.m.

Swisher County Show Barns, Tulia, Texas

This event is in conjunction with a previously scheduled AgriLife Extension meeting

Tuesday, April 22 from 6:30 - 8:30 p.m.

XIT Rita Blanca Coliseum, 1219 West FM 281, Dalhart, Texas

Dinner Included

Wednesday, April 23 from 8 - 10 a.m.

Moore County Community Building, 1600 S. Maddox Ave., Dumas, Texas

Light Breakfast Included

Registration

These events are open to the public. Please register in advance, if possible, by visiting <https://texascorn.webconnex.com/ProducerFarmBill2014>.

www.TexasCorn.org | 806.763.CORN (2676)
4205 N. Interstate 27 | Lubbock, Texas

AFPC

Agricultural and Food Policy Center
The Texas A&M University System

TEXAS A&M AGRI LIFE EXTENSION