

Ann Martin Joins, Harkcon, Inc. As the Account Manager for Domestic and International Training

Harkcon Inc. recently welcomed Ann Martin, an experienced, results-oriented leader to assume the role of PM for Domestic and International Training.

Ann Martin will fulfill the company's expanding role as Harkcon's IDIQ Account Manager for the Performance Management and Continuous Process Improvement (PM/CPI) Blanket Purchase Agreement (BPA) from the U.S. General Services Administration (GSA). Ann joins Harkcon as a seasoned veteran in the business world and has worked for small and large businesses over the course of her career, most recently as a Vice President and Division Director at C2 Technologies, Inc., and prior to that, at Serco, NA, and SI International, Inc. During her time with Serco/C2 Technologies/SI International, her clients included OPM, FAA, FEMA, ICE, and CMS.

"We are excited to have Ann join our team and look forward to having her apply her expertise as we anticipate winning several new IDIQ contracts in the near future," said Laurie Mosier, Harkcon's CHCO.

Martin has over 30 years of experience in learning and development, P&L, budgeting, and management of business units working with Federal Government contracts. She provides insight in identifying critical success factors needed for delivering outstanding learning services and solutions to Federal clients. Martin's areas of expertise include design, development, and delivery of cost effective learning approaches and just-in-time, just-enough training to meet ever-expanding organizational demands. She is highly skilled in building relationships and partnerships, cost management, project financial analysis, and pricing.
