

SM

TRUMPET
BEHAVIORAL HEALTH

HOUSTON TEAM MEMBERS

Linda LeBlanc, Ph.D., BCBA-D, is a Board Certified Behavior Analyst - Doctorate and is Executive Director of Research and Clinical Services at Trumpet Behavioral Health. She is also a Michigan Licensed Psychologist.

Dr. LeBlanc's current research and clinical interests include the behavioral treatment of autism and developmental disabilities across the lifespan, behavioral gerontology, verbal behavior, and technology-based interventions.

She has published over 80 articles and book chapters and is a current associate editor of Education and Treatment of Children and The Analysis of Verbal Behavior, as well as a former Associate Editor of the Journal of Applied Behavior Analysis and Behavior Analysis in Practice.

Paige Raetz, BCBA-D, Ph.D. is a Board Certified Behavior Analyst - Doctorate and is Clinical Director for the Arizona, Illinois and Texas Regions with Trumpet Behavioral Health.

Dr. Raetz provides families with a range of services including psychological assessment and treatment services, school consultation, parent training and more.

Dr. Raetz is member of Association of Behavior Analysts - International (ABAI), The Arizona Chapter (AZABA), and the Association for Professional Behavior Analysts.

Sarah Veazey, MS, BCBA, is a Senior Clinician and Board Certified Behavior Analyst. She earned her Master of Science degree in Behavior Analysis at Auburn University and her Bachelor of Arts in Elementary Education at McNeese State University.

Sarah is bilingual in English and Spanish and has expertise in parent and teacher training, toilet training, and early intervention techniques. She began working with children as a preschool teacher and truly loves working with students with disabilities.

Sarah worked with our Trumpet Team in Salinas, California before moving back to the south to Houston where she oversees Trumpet's in-home ABA therapy services.