

COUNTRY LIFE

BEST OF BRITAIN AND LUXURY ISSUE

ON SALE 11TH JUNE

On June 11th, Country Life will be celebrating everything that is great about Britain. A host of well-known people including Princess Anne, Boris Johnson, John Major and Julian Fellowes will be writing about a wide range of topics including seasons, food & drink, fashion and the arts.

This issue will be on sale on June 11th and will have a special embossed cover. There will also be additional promotions through newsagents and supermarkets and extra copies will also be printed. Significant PR is forecast for this issue and it will also include the results of the Gentleman of the Year Awards.

Because of the additional production for the front cover, the booking deadline for this issue will be earlier than normal, and we will require the number of pages by Monday May 19th, this will not affect the deadline for copy which will be as normal.

Our readers are serious about property and are actively looking to buy, so don't miss out on showcasing your properties in this special issue.
