FALL CREEK FALLS STATE PARK

THE ADVENTURE PARK

Come soar through the forest and explore wilds of central Tennessee from a treetop perspective. Nestled in a mature stand of oaks, hickory, and pines overlooking scenic Fall Creek Falls Lake, the aerial adventure park consists of 70+ suspended obstacles certain to quicken your pulse and test your resolve.

The aerial adventure park is a 2.5-hour self-guided experience. Following outfitting and thorough instruction at Ground School, participants may select from six different courses ranging from easy to extreme. Supervised and encouraged from below by certified guides, participants maneuver through the course connected to a flexible lifeline system that uses smart-belay technology to ensure 100% connectivity.

Whether you are interested in learning about the local wildlife or just acting like it, ZIPStream Fall Creek Falls has something for the adventurer in you. Take your time and enjoy the scenery or challenge yourself to complete all of the elements.

ABOUT FALL CREEK FALLS

ZIPStream Fall Creek Falls is located at Fall Creek Falls State Park, Tennessee's largest state park. The park encompasses more than 26,000 acres sprawled across the eastern top of the rugged Cumberland Plateau. Laced with cascades, gorges, waterfalls, streams and lush stands of virgin hardwood timber, the park beckons those who enjoy nature at her finest. Fall Creek Falls, at 256 feet, is one of the highest waterfalls in the eastern United States. Other waterfalls within the park include Piney Falls, Cane Creek Falls and Cane Creek Cascades.

The park boasts scenic day hikes, multi-day backpacking trails, mountain biking, horseback riding, paddle sports, a nature center, and more. Fall Creek Falls features an inn with 145 hotel rooms, a restaurant and extensive meeting space. There are also 30 cabins and 222 campsites. For more information and to book accommodations, visit tnstateparks.com.
