Pride at St. Mark's Episcopal Cathedral

At St. Mark's we provide a safe and welcoming space to promote freedom in the LGBTQ community through education, discussion and artistic expression. Our goal is to support and lift up as a community those who are Coming Out:

- Within family
- Within church
- Within career
- Within self

Film • Dialogue • Music • Worship

Pride begins in May at St. Mark's. In partnership with United Theological Seminary of the Twin Cities, we are expanding the opportunities for the LGBTQ community and allies to celebrate and learn, with a special focus on transgender inclusion. We've invited Allyson Robinson, a leading transgender voice for issues of LGBTQ inclusion, to join us for Pride Weekend.

Allyson Robinson

A nationally respected, award-winning social entrepreneur and movement strategist, Allyson Robinson has built a career advising and leading organizations on the vanguard of social change. She is founder and principal of Warrior Poet Strategies, a Washington, D.C.-based consulting firm advising select clients in organizational design, diversity and inclusion, and social and civic entrepreneurship. Prior to founding Warrior Poet she led initiatives at the Human Rights Campaign and was the first transgender person to lead a national LGBT organization as executive director of OutServe-SLDN. She's also served as an Army officer and Baptist pastor, studied at West Point, Arizona State, and Oxford University, and earned degrees in physics and theology.

Tuesday Nights May 6–June 17: Pride at the Movies

Join us for a series of films and discussion about the challenges for inclusion of transgender individuals at St. Mark's Episcopal Cathedral, 519 Oak Grove Street Minneapolis MN 55403.

May 6th 7:00pm "Ma vie en rose" (My Life in Pink)

A heart-wrenching and heart-warming French story with English subtitles of an 8-year-old boy who tries to be true to himself and how it impacts his family. Host: Christy Marie Kent, author of Changing with Grace: Angels, Monks & Hormones

May 20th 7:00pm "Normal"

A sexual transformation that challenges a family, a marriage and a career. It is all about who you are, being in love, and simply being normal. Host: Ellen Krug, Executive Director of Call for Justice LLC, and author of Getting to Ellen: A Memoir about Love, Honesty and Gender Change

June 3rd 7:00pm "Transamerica"

A funny, touching look at the American family, with award-winning Felicity Huffman. Host: Deb Thorp, MD, Park Nicollet Clinic OB/GYN, providing health care services to the transgender community.

June 17th 7:00pm "Too Cold Out There Without You"

A transgendered Episcopal Priest, a troubled Bishop and the challenges facing the conflicted Anglican Communion. Host: Bishop Bruce Caldwell, Transitional Spiritual Leader at St. Mark's.

Pride programming and events are supported by contributions to the Friends of Inclusion Fund of St. Mark's Episcopal Cathedral. You can become a Friend by making an online contribution at ourcathedral.org/pride.

All Pride events are open to the public. No admission charge; a goodwill offering will be taken

June 26–28: Pride Excitement Begins!

Thursday June 26th 7pm

Community Forum: Allyson Robinson Peak Equality: The Future of the LGBTQ Movement in a Post-DOMA, Post-ENDA World

at St. Mark's Episcopal Cathedral 519 Oak Grove Street Minneapolis MN 55403

Allyson Robinson will explore the issues facing the LGBTQ community today and in the future.

Friday June 27th 5pm

Out in Gospel

Out in Gospel, presented by United Theological Seminary of the Twin Cities, is an education and celebration event that promotes respect, reconciliation and solidarity.

5:00–7:00pm Panel Discussion

The panel brings together theologians, church leaders and the public for conversation about human sexuality within the context of theology, arts and worship. A light supper will be served to panel attendees.

7:30pm Gospel Concert featuring Jevetta Steele

A Gospel music concert—Singing in the Spirit—celebrates Pride weekend in Minnesota!

Saturday June 28th 2–4pm Pride Festival

Join us at our booth in Loring Park where Pride Festival attendees can meet in person with Allyson Robinson.
