Crisfield, Maryland – 29 May 2014

Chairman & CEO of Handy
International, Terry Conway

Terry Conway is pleased to receive the Watermen's Hall of Fame Honoree Award for playing a vital role in the soft shell crab and seafood industry. The award was presented at the Soft Shell Spring Festival in Crisfield, Maryland on Sunday, May 25. "We are very honored to be recognized in the community for our business and longstanding history," said Terry Conway.

The honorary award for the Watermen's Hall of Fame is bestowed on key industry watermen and/or seafood businesses to recognize outstanding efforts and success within the seafood industry. Handy International has been in the seafood business for over 120 years and is the oldest seafood processor in America.
