Habitat Corporate Suites Network is now Corporate Suites Network, LLC.

New name. Same commitment to quality corporate housing solutions.

CHICAGO — June 5, 2014 — One of the best-known names in the corporate housing industry is now Corporate Suites Network, LLC. (csnhousing.com). Dave Flando, who started with Habitat Corporate Suites Network in 1990 and served as its president since 1997, formed a new ownership group and will remain as CEO of the company.

Flando is quick to emphasize that the company's focus and team are unchanged. "From top to bottom, we're the same company," he said. "We're still 'the people you stay with.' However, the name has changed, and we believe that the new ownership structure will enable us to better serve our clients and accelerate growth."

With spacious, fully furnished studio-, one-, two- and three-bedroom corporate apartments in more than 35 locations, Corporate Suites Network will continue to meet its clients' corporate housing needs throughout the Chicago area. Additionally, through its extensive network of partner corporate housing providers, Corporate Suites Network can solve corporate housing challenges throughout the United States.
