

Richard C. Parmelee, CPA

General Experience Highlights

As a partner in BlumShapiro's Accounting and Audit Department, Rick supervises the services provided to a variety of privately held businesses, specializing in automobile dealerships.

Rick is also a member of the firm's Employee Benefit Assurance Services Group and oversees many of the firm's employee benefit plan audit engagements, including the audits of defined contribution, defined benefit and health and welfare plans.

As a member of the Dealership Services Group, Rick provides a wide range of services beyond year-end financial statement preparation and tax compliance. He works closely with clients reviewing monthly financial statements, assisting them with benchmarking and operational performance, compliance with banking and factory financial requirements and business sales and acquisitions. Rick has been a presenter at several dealership industry groups on topics relevant to the industry.
