

Iris Data Services Acquires Clarity Litigation Support, LLC
Leading Electronic Discovery Company Expands New Orleans Operations

KANSAS CITY, June 16 2014 — Iris Data Services, a leading provider of discovery solutions, today announced the successful acquisition of Clarity Litigation Support. Clarity is a top discovery and litigation support firm with offices in New Orleans and Baton Rouge. Iris Data Services is a leading supplier of discovery solutions including electronic discovery, managed litigation services and document review technologies, including kCura's Relativity, which consists of Relativity Analytics and Relativity Assisted Review. With this acquisition, Iris Data Services will strengthen its expertise in delivering premium eDiscovery solutions to clients.

"We welcome Clarity Litigation Support to our team," said Major Baisden, Iris' President. "This powerful acquisition gives our New Orleans customers even more support in each of our core discovery services — eDiscovery, forensics, imaging, online hosting, and attorney document review."

"We are excited to work with the Iris team," said Clint Shirley, former Managing Partner of Clarity Litigation Support and Iris' new Regional Sales Director. "Our combined resources will enhance our service offering to clients in the Southern region, giving them one company to turn to for all their discovery needs."

About Iris

Iris Data Services is a leading supplier of discovery solutions including electronic discovery, managed litigation services, and document review technologies. Led by recognized experts in electronic discovery and document review, Iris continually strives to defensibly reduce the amount of reviewable data on every matter. As an Orange-level Best in Service Hosting Partner and Certified Reseller of Relativity by kCura, Iris' extensive document review expertise includes complex search consulting, computer-aided review technologies, and experienced attorney review teams. Iris' discovery experts, project management team, and use of technology have combined to make it one of the fastest growing companies in the industry. In 2011, Iris Data Services made the Inc. 500 list of the fastest-growing private companies in America, making Iris the fastest growing eDiscovery company in the United States. Iris' U.S. headquarters is in Kansas City and its European headquarters is in London. Iris maintains offices throughout the United States, Europe, India and China.
