JERRY KELLY

Three PGA Tour Wins

Fan and Media Favorite

OF THE PEOPLE, BY THE PEOPLE, FOR THE PEOPLE

How do you sum up 16 years on the PGA Tour and Top-25 ALL-TIME on the CAREER MONEY list?

How do you condense 8 professional WINS, runs in the MAJOR CHAMPIONSHIPS and representing the USA in the PRESIDENTS CUP -- into a paragraph?

How do you estimate the impact of talking to US Troops IN the Persian Gulf? Or look a devastated Midwest FLOOD VICTIM in the eye saying "we're here to help."

In Jerry Kelly's case you don't have to sum up, condense or estimate -- because his golf game and his passion for helping others is going strong!

Like Vijay Singh, Kenny Perry, and Jerry's life-long friend and fellow Wisconsinite Steve Stricker -- Jerry is playing some of the best golf of his career in his 40's.

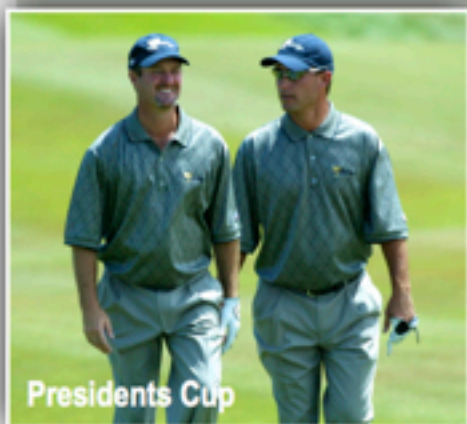

The exciting, emotional, Mardi-Gras-bead-wearing VICTORY in New Orleans -- the WIN at the Shark Shootout with Stricker.. Both came after the big 4-oh.

Jerry plays with passion, emotion, crowd and sponsor interaction that's made him ONE OF THE MOST EXCITING players in the history of the game.

JERRY KELLY a winner in every sense of the word.

AVONDALE, La. - Jerry Kelly took the umbrella from the parade marshal, donned his tasseled sash and danced his way off the 18th as the brass band played an exuberant Dixieland tune.

"It's been a long time," said Kelly, who was showered with Mardi Gras beads by fans and presented with a large tray of char-broiled oysters by his favorite New Orleans restaurant.

Widely regarded as one of the very best personalities on Tour, Jerry Kelly wears his heart -- and his emotions on his sleeve. Check out this hysterical "Homage to Jerry's emotions on the golf course" that some stranger posted to You Tube

Kelly began showing his support for the Navy SEAL Foundation in 2006 when he spent his birthday, which fell on Thanksgiving Day, in Iraq at one of Saddam Hussein's former palaces in Baghdad. He spent eight days in Iraq visiting 14 bases and entertaining the troops and visiting the wounded. - See more at: <http://www.birdiesforthebrave.org/>
