NECC Proudly Celebrates 35 Years of Service to Its Customers

National Energy Control Corporation (NECC), a leading distributor of commercial HVAC controls in the Philadelphia, PA area, announces its 35 anniversary.

Havertown, PA, June 18, 2014 - National Energy Control Corporation (NECC), a leading authorized wholesale distributor of commercial/industrial HVAC supplies, announces its 35th anniversary. Started in 1979 by Kerk Farrell and Joe Pupis, NECC is now a leading wholesale distributor of over 200,000 parts and controls for commercial and industrial heating, ventilation and air conditioning (HVAC) systems. NECC's website and online catalog is at <http://necc-controls.com>.

In its 35 years, NECC has built relationships with and is an authorized distributor for many established original equipment manufacturers (OEMs) of HVAC systems and components. These include Honeywell, Siemens, Johnson Controls, Barber Colman, Belimo and Powers. NECC specializes in replacements for pneumatic controls and has its own Pneuline Controls® brand of pneumatic replacement parts. With the vast experience and extensive industry expertise of its customer support staff, NECC assists customers every day with finding and supplying the right parts for customers.

“Through more than 35 years in business, our most important asset has been our people,” says Joe Pupis, co-founder of National Energy Control Corporation. “Most of our employees have been with us for ten years or more; some for as many as 15, 20 and even 30 years! I am very proud of that fact.”

Pupis and President and co-founder, Kerk Farrell, celebrated the anniversary recently at a luncheon, held at Springfield Country Club in Springfield PA. The luncheon was attended by many business associates, employees and company alumni. Congratulatory greetings, including some videos, flowed in from around the country, recognizing NECC's milestone anniversary. The company is also planning celebratory trips to Citizen's Bank Park, home of the Philadelphia Phillies, with some of their local customers.
