

*Available
July 2014!*

7th GENERATION

No Name
Tim Tingle
978-1-939053-06-0
160 pages
$9.95

Inspired by the traditional Choctaw story “No Name,” this modern adaptation features a present-day Choctaw teenager surviving tough family times—his mom left home and his dad is an abusive alcoholic. After an explosive confrontation, the teen runs away from home only to return and find a hiding spot in his backyard. With help and encouragement from friends and a coach, the teen is able to face his father.

• New Series •

Billy Buckhorn Supernatural Adventures

Billy Buckhorn
Abnormal
Gary Robinson
978-939053-07-7
152 pages
$9.95

Book one of the new Billy Buckhorn series introduces a Cherokee teen that uses his supernatural abilities to solve mysteries. In this first installment, Abnormal, Billy is struck by lightning while fishing with his friend Chigger. He survives the lightning strike but begins to experience an enhanced level of ESP. Billy is labeled “abnormal” by one of his teachers after he uncovers an unsavory secret from the teacher’s past. What no one suspects is the teacher is a shape-shifter who becomes an evil raven that gains strength from his victim’s fear.

PO Box 99
Summertown, TN 38483
888-260-8458
Fax 931-964-3518

NATIVEVOICESBOOKS.COM

Sales Manager
John Schweri
john@bookpubco.com

All books are available through
INGRAM • BAKER & TAYLOR
ORCA • FOUR WINDS

PathFinders

Novels for American Indian Teens!

PathFinders

Novels for Struggling Readers

- Native authors/culturally accurate content
- Age appropriate plots
- Native teen protagonists
- 4.0 to 5.5 Reading level
- Limited vocabulary
- Linear storyline
- Contemporary and historic themes

"Thank each author for including native words as part of the stories. Difficult issues were not sugar coated but presented with integrity. References to Native Spirituality were respectfully addressed without creating "fake ceremonies" or reflecting New Age perspectives. It was refreshing to encounter believable stories that honestly portray life among indigenous people. If I were teaching middle school, I would definitely purchase these books. Thanks for the opportunity to review."

Naomi Caldwell, PhD (Ramapough Lenape) School Library Media Specialist, K-12

"Danny Blackgoat, Navajo Prisoner, a fast-paced historical novel, adds a memorable perspective to Native American literature for teens. This exciting novel will be enjoyed by readers interested in stories about hidden, unjustly imprisoned, or marginalized teens who seek to escape and get justice." Voice of Youth Advocates Magazine VOYA Reviews 2013 October

Little Brother of War "There is strength in the depiction of a young man finding his way by looking to his roots, and Robinson powerfully captures the exhilaration of knowing exactly where one belongs." Booklist September 1, 2013

Little Brother of War "The tension between respecting Choctaw tradition and embracing change are at the heart of Robinson's strong addition to the PathFinders series about Native American teens, written by Native authors. Written at a fourth-grade reading level, the story captures the believable friction in Randy's family and introduces a bit of American culture that will be new to many readers." Publisher Weekly Reviews 2013 August #2

Son Who Returns

Gary Robinson
978-1-939053-04-6
152 pages
$9.95

New!

Mark Centeno, who is of Chumash, Crow, Mexican, and Filipino ancestry, becomes captivated by powwow dancing and embraces a new, exciting connection to his Native heritage.

Danny Blackgoat Trilogy By award winning author Tim Tingle

Danny Blackgoat: Rugged Road to Freedom

Tim Tingle
978-1-939053-05-3
168 pages
$9.95

New!

In the second book of the trilogy, following his escape from prison, the Navajo teen experiences a harrowing journey towards home. As he ricochets from one bad situation to the next, his bravery doesn't falter and he never loses faith.

Danny Blackgoat, Navajo Prisoner

Tim Tingle
978-1-939053-03-9
160 pages
$9.95

In book one of the trilogy, the Navajo teen is captured and forced on the Long Walk of 1864. Danny deals with bullies, rattlesnakes, and abusive soldiers until a fellow prisoner helps Danny take part in a daring and dangerous escape.

Recipient of the 2014 American Indian Youth Literature Award Honor Recognition for Juvenile Fiction

Little Brother of War

Gary Robinson
978-1-939053-02-2
120 pages
$9.95

Sixteen-year-old Mississippi Choctaw Randy Cheska's rebellion becomes a journey of discovery when he finds a sense of self-worth and new direction in life through playing the traditional Choctaw game of stickball.

Tribal Journey

Gary Robinson
978-1-939053-01-5
128 pages
$9.95

A Native teen is forced to deal with becoming partially paralyzed as a result of a car accident caused while both drivers were texting. When he becomes part of the Raven Canoe Family and learns to "pull" a canoe, his outlook on life begins to change.

Thunder on the Plains

Gary Robinson
978-1-939053-00-8
128 pages
$9.95

Danny Wind is still not over the death of his father when his mom marries a white man. When he acts out and gets suspended from school, Danny is sent to a survival camp for Native teens where he takes part in a bison rescue.