LAS VEGAS INTERIOR DESIGNER LAUNCHES NEW WEBSITE, MELISSAROCHE.COM

LAS VEGAS – Melissa Roche, a Las Vegas, NV, resident, interior designer and season two contestant on HGTV's Brother vs. Brother, is pleased to launch her new website, MelissaRoche.com. Melissa has more than ten years of interior design experience, and is the owner of Parlor 430, an interior design studio in Las Vegas, Nevada. The website includes a biography and a portfolio of Melissa's work. Melissa describes her personal style as "clean lines that include personal details," which is evidenced through the numerous pictures on the site. In addition to the biography and portfolio, Melissa shares information about her participation in the second season of the HGTV competition show Brother vs. Brother, where she competed on Team Drew.

"I'm so excited to share my website, and especially my work," says Melissa Roche, interior designer and owner of Parlor 430. "Between the new website and competing in Brother vs. Brother this season, I'm excited to see the new market that the business will reach. I have a passion for design, and I'm thrilled to be able to share that with the world."

Melissa, a Minnesota native, has flipped more than 50 houses, and also has commercial and hospitality design experience. Melissa earned a Bachelor's Degree in interior design from University of Minnesota – Twin Peaks. For more information about Melissa and her work, please visit MelissaRoche.com.
