ROSEASP BECOMES PREMIER PARTNER MEMBER OF MICROSOFT DYNAMICS GP USER GROUP

RoseASP continues to contribute knowledge and expertise to the Microsoft Dynamics GP Community by joining the official Microsoft Dynamics GP User Group.

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (July 1, 2014) RoseASP, Inc, a provider of hosted enterprise resource planning software, announced Tuesday that it has joined the Dynamics GP User Group (GPUG) as a Premier Partner Member.

“We are thrilled to become a premier member with the Microsoft Dynamics GP User Group community,” said Jeffrey DeMaria, Product Manager of RoseASP, Inc. “Listening and participating in conversations with customers and partners helps our organization provide better cloud services. By strengthening our involvement with the Microsoft Dynamic GP Community and sharing our knowledge of enterprise resource planning and cloud hosting, we hope to propel the entire industry forward.”

GPUG is an independent group of Microsoft Dynamics GP users, partners, and industry experts, recognized by Microsoft as the official user group for Dynamics GP. RoseASP’s membership with GPUG as a Premier Partner, is yet another example of the hosting provider’s commitment to the Microsoft Dynamics GP community and gives them new avenues to share their Cloud Compliancy expertise.

“Our Premier Partner members are an integral part of the GPUG community. They bring innovative solutions, strategies and expertise to the group that is of immense value to our members,” said Kim Peterson, GPUG Director. “GPUG will work hand in hand with RoseASP in growing the community by offering their customers many useful benefits as well. We’re happy to welcome RoseASP and we look forward to their participation in and contributions to GPUG.”
