

How To Increase Your Tax Revenue While Protecting Your Residents From Identity Thieves!

Without Any Cost To You**

There've been many cases in the news lately about identity theft. Target, 14 Major Hotels, TJ Maxx, Marshalls and even the IRS have had problems with identity theft fraud.

Help us help you put a stop to it in your city! There's no cost to you and it could increase your tax revenue.

It takes only 2 minutes to do and starts putting money back into your city immediately. And YES ... it can help more than one business in your community.

How Encouraging Residents to Shred Can Benefit Your City:

- By having your residents shred their documents, you increase your city tax revenues.
- Since the shredding companies are local, it puts the money back into your city, thus helping the shredding companies hire more employees.
- Shredding companies use local recyclers to drop off the shredded paper, thus also helping the recycler to grow and building your city's wealth.
- Gain the respect of your community by letting them know how concerned you are about the growing crime of identity theft.
- Recycling keeps paper out of your landfill.
- Shredding promotes recycling.

- ☑ Reduces pollution.
- ☑ Decreases crime.
- ☑ Frees up police from identity theft calls.
