Adam Shulman and Anne Hathaway Support World of Children® Award Over 4th of July Weekend

Jewelry designer Adam Shulman and his wife, actress Anne Hathaway, hold up cardboard signs for paparazzi to support World of Children Award and other children's charities.

July 8, 2014 – Over the 4th of July weekend, actor, producer and jewelry designer Adam Shulman and his wife, actress Anne Hathaway, met paparazzi with cardboard signs covering their faces that told viewers to support World of Children Award (worldofchildren.org), a nonprofit that improves the lives of vulnerable children by funding and elevating the most effective changemakers for children worldwide.

Hathaway's sign read, "Emma Stone and Andrew Garfield had a great idea! Please check out: www.girleffect.org, www.feedingamerica.org, www.worldofchildren.org."

Shulman completed the message with "Happy 4th of July!"

Last year, Shulman partnered with World of Children Award to design a Limited Edition Key Necklace that featured the nonprofit's signature logo. The necklace was released at the 2013 World of Children Awards Ceremony. 100% of the profits supported World of Children Award's programs serving the needs of vulnerable children.

Shulman plans to design a new key for this year's World of Children Awards Ceremony in November, which will take place in New York City. To learn more about the Awards Ceremony, visit worldofchildren.org/awardsceremony.
