Press Release:

Beckwood Press & Triform Sheet Hydroforming Add New Sales Engineer to the Team

St. Louis, MO – Beckwood Press Company, a leading hydraulic press manufacturer and manufacturer of the Triform Sheet Hydroforming line of presses, announces the addition of a new Sales Engineer, Caleb Dixon, to the Triform Sheet Hydroforming team.

As a Sales Engineer for Triform, Mr. Dixon will consult with clients to apply Triform technologies to their specific applications. He will work closely with Triform's team of Hydroforming Engineers and Part Forming Specialists as well as Beckwood's engineering and manufacturing departments to communicate crucial project details while insuring client requirements are met.

Mr. Dixon has a Bachelor of Science degree from Missouri State University, and apart from his previous civilian positions in sales, has held multiple duties with the United States Army – including serving overseas. Dixon's keen analysis and communication skills coupled with his leadership abilities position him to be a tremendous asset to Beckwood, Triform and the companies they serve.
