The screenshot displays the eLeaP web interface for a course titled "Getting Started With eLeaP". The navigation menu includes HOME, COURSES, USERS, USER GROUPS, TRAINING PATHS, QUIZ RESULTS, FORUM, and REPORTS. The current page is the "Completion Report" for the course. It shows a "Summary Report" with "Completed 25% (1 of 4)" and a "Quiz Summary Report" with "Passed 25% (1 of 4)". There is a "Download all certificates" link. Below the reports is a filter section with fields for "User", "Select User Group", "From", "To", and a "Filter" button. A table lists the users and their progress:

No.	Name	Progress	Quiz	Release Certificate	Deadline	Active
1.	Pascu, John	Not started	Uncompleted	-	04-15-2014	⊙
2.	Peters, Lazarus	Completed	Passed	✓	04-15-2014	⊙
3.	Samson, Doc Jones	Not started	Uncompleted	-	04-15-2014	⊙

WHY ELEAP MATTERS

The dollar value from utilizing eLeaP has increased our business by 300% which generated an average of $3,000.00 per day for seven days. Reduced development time to minimum saving at least $6,000.00 per course offered.

Jack Yapp, President, California Electrical Training, Inc.

Spectacularly awesome! Thanks – I uber really mucho appreciate eLeaP.

Willis Butcher, Halozyme

We recently rolled out the eLeaP solution with 100+ courses and 200+ trainees across our 9 offices in 6 different countries. Roll out was flawless and the trainees have stated how user-friendly the system is to use. Support in setting up the system, and ongoing support in maintaining the live system has been second to none, with support staff being available out of standard office hours has been ideal as a UK-headquartered company.
