Forbes names Tannenbaum Helpern a top US law firm

New York, NY, August 21, 2014—We are proud to announce that Forbes, an authoritative global news source, has recognized Tannenbaum Helpern Syracuse & Hirschtritt LLP as a top US law firm.

Forbes 2014-2015 Legal Black Book list, created by Forbes Business Division, recognizes a select group of elite law firms, regardless of size, for providing critical legal services to US and global corporations. Selection is based on a law firm's track record of providing quality legal counsel to corporations, practice area range and focus, and high ranking for quality execution in multiple reviews.

"We are delighted to receive this recognition. Since our founding in 1978, our firm has always put a great emphasis on providing quality legal counsel to the business community," said Joel S. Hirschtritt, Tannenbaum Helpern's managing partner. "Whether it's forming a new fund, business or distribution channel; helping raise capital; dealing with an employment law issue; starting a franchise; buying or selling a business; leasing, buying, selling or building a real estate property; protecting intellectual property; resolving litigation and disputes, complying with regulatory rules; or simply addressing day-to-day legal business operating issues, our attorneys take great pride in offering clients quality counsel and practical solutions."
