Leading Local Accounting Firm Announces Name Change

Pleasanton, CA – September 3, 2014 – DePretis CPAs, a full-service accounting and advisory firm, based in Pleasanton, CA, has announced a change in the name of the organization, launched a new client-centered website, and restated their mission and values.

Formerly Thompson & DePretis, LLP, the firm will now be known DePretis CPAs. The name change reflects a change in ownership that took place in 2013. As DePretis CPAs, the firm will continue to serve leading Tri-Valley area businesses and individuals by providing tax, accounting, bookkeeping and consulting services. DePretis CPAs specializes in helping growing, entrepreneurial, mid-sized businesses achieve their organizational goals. Services provided include tax compliance and planning, bookkeeping, financial statement compilations and reviews, accounting systems consulting, outsourced CFO services, succession planning and more. DePretis CPAs works with successful businesses in many industries including manufacturing, real estate, technology, professional practices and more.

“We are excited to be starting a new chapter at DePretis CPAs. While our name will change, our commitment to our clients will remain as strong as ever,” says DePretis CPAs Managing Shareholder Matthew DePretis. “The same team of professionals that our clients know and rely on will still be here, working hard to find new ways to help our clients succeed personally and professionally.”

Clients with questions should contact DePretis CPAs at 925-600-8500 or visit the firm’s website at **www.DePretis-CPA.com**.

DePretis CPAs is a full-service accounting and advisory firm dedicated to serving businesses, individuals, trusts and non-profit organizations in the Tri-Valley area.
