

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Haunted Hell, a Haunted Attraction in Nashville (Antioch), Tennessee, Opens its Doors to the Public on September 19, 2014.

In it's 2nd year, Haunted Hell invites its guests to face their fears among the rotting ruins and grueling landscapes only seen in nightmares. The masterminds of Hell (Tony Warner and Patrick Warner, of Devil's Dungeon), have packed Haunted Hell with twisted chambers full of shock and mayhem to delight, disorient and terrify even the most hardened Fan of Fright.

Nashville, TN --- From September 19th thru Halloween, you are invited to enjoy the theatrical mayhem provided by the Haunted Hell.

The large scale scenes, filled with cutting edge audio, special effects, and artistic detail, are gruesome, graphic and 'in-your-face'. This 22,000 square foot stage is the playground for a demon cast of more than live 35 actors that increase the unpredictable element to Haunted Hell.

Visit Hell Meade, the exclusive community that isn't as it seems. Travel the creek bed through terrifying and disorienting situations to the urban underground of madness. Try to escape through scenes of mayhem and dark imagery to find the only exit out of Haunted Hell—and that exit door can seem miles away when one is being pursued by the evil that calls Haunted Hell its home.

About The Haunted Hell:

The Haunted Hell is in its 2nd year of operation. Tony Warner, Patrick Warner bring years of experience in the professional haunt industry to Haunted Hell. Known regionally and nationally in the industry, Tony began his haunting experience in the design, construction and management at the Original Death Row Haunted Prison from 1996 - 1999. Patrick literally grew up in the haunted industry, beginning at age four. There are veteran actors that have been with the Warner Family's production since 1996, and other experienced actors have joined forces with Haunted Hell to add to the theatrical mayhem.

Journalists: On Friday and Saturday evenings in September, how would you like to experience a night in Haunted Hell as an actor as a feature story? Would you be interested in shadowing the technical staff of Haunted Hell during a typical evening? Do you need photos and other promotional material from Haunted Hell? Please contact Lisa at 615-568-5351 or 508lofts@gmail.com, referencing 'Haunted Hell Journalist Inquiry'). Contact ASAP! Earlier in the month, the better. We will need time to arrange your visit and coordinate your actor's spot or shadowing with staff, making sure you can get the most complete experience you can get!
