Last Full Week in September

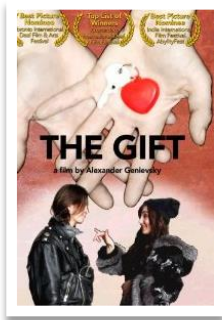

BALTIMORE'S BIGGEST ASL CLASS

TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 23 | 6:00 p.m. – 8:00 p.m. | HASA AUDITORIUM

Lessons on Deaf culture, history and awareness. Join us as we come together in an ASL-rich celebration of communication!

Free admission | Registration required

This program is presented entirely in sign language and while no voice interpretation will be provided, we invite anyone to attend – whether they are fluent in ASL or not.

ASL FILM: The Gift

WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 24 | 6:00 p.m. – 8:00 p.m. | HASA AUDITORIUM

She was a deaf dancer. He was a hearing musician. Watch what happens when they fall in love. This is a story of kindness, tragicomedy, communication barriers and love. Alexander Genievsky, the film's director, will be in attendance!

Free admission | Registration required | Refreshments available to purchase in lobby

This program is presented in sign language (the film is captioned). If voice interpretation is needed, please request on registration form.

GET FIT WHERE YOU SIT! Chair Yoga

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 25 | 10:00 a.m. – 11:00 a.m. | HASA AUDITORIUM

Facilitator Barbara Eager-Platt is passionate about inspiring and empowering students to discover their inner balance. Her remarkable communication style (in a language that resonates with Deaf students) brings enthusiasm and clarity that connects deaf students' ability to see and feel inner beauty. She is certified with Yoga Alliance and teaches Deaf Yoga classes at The Yoga Center of Columbia in Columbia, Maryland.
